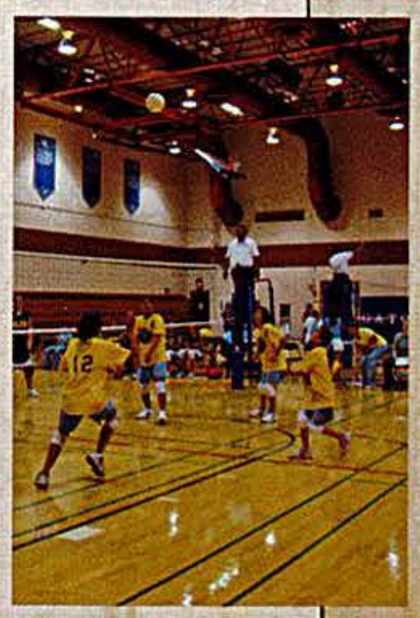
MIDDLE SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL

Cassandra Witherspoon was our new coach for CYAA Volleyball in 2005. She was able to lead our middle school girls to great success; motivating the girls to build on teamwork and support. Through hard practice and strong desire these Roadrunners finished third in the CYAA Volleyball Tournament in October. Great work girls! Great work Cassandra!

Seniada is ready for the ball, while Viri backs her up.



These girls always tried their best. Teamwork to the MAX!

Maria goes for the volley, while her teammates watch and hope.

Congratulations to all these women for a great season and showing true team spirit!

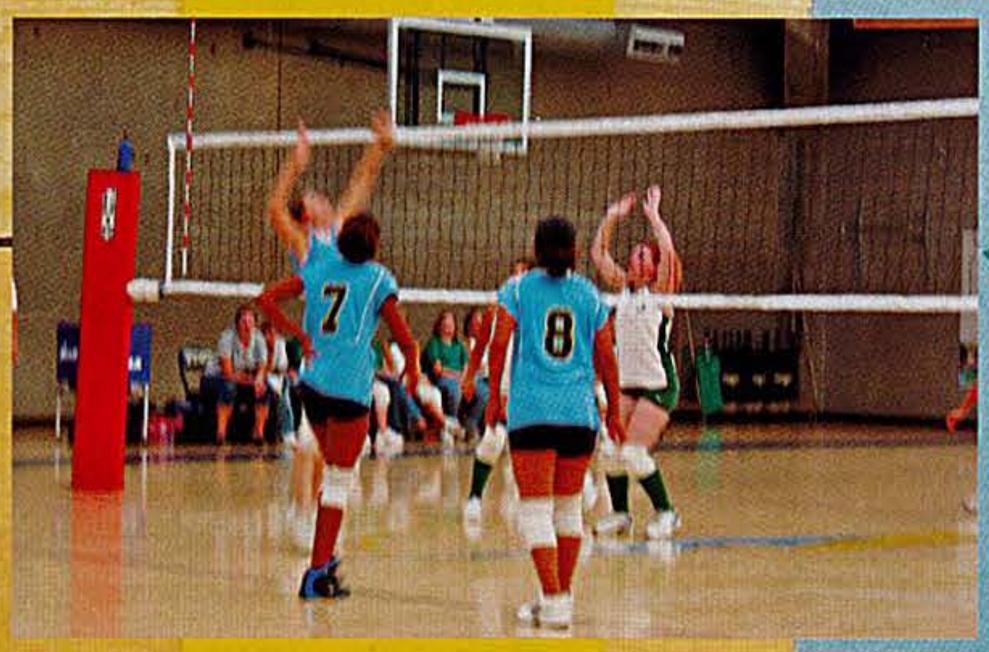
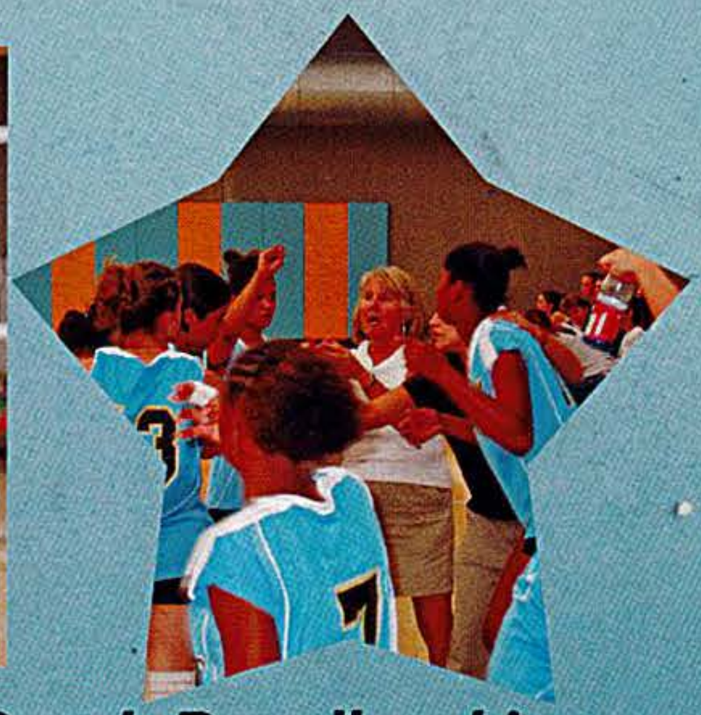
Front Row: Gaby Flores, Sophia Stone, Maria Rubio, Bianca Hamilton, Jessica Diaz, Assistant Coach; Brenda Byers

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

Silly, silly young women!
Front Row: Jeanette Mejia, Jessica Armenta, Yvette Berry, Valerie Becker, Deidra Pelletier, Yareli Baca. Back Row: Moniqa Garza, Samarah Washington, Erica Lopez, Sabrina Hughes.



Hooray!! Valerie spikes the ball!



Coach Bonelle whips up the team's enthusiasm.

Jessica Armenta can do it!
GO ROADRUNNERS!!

PDSD girls are watching the ball, ready to rebound if needed.

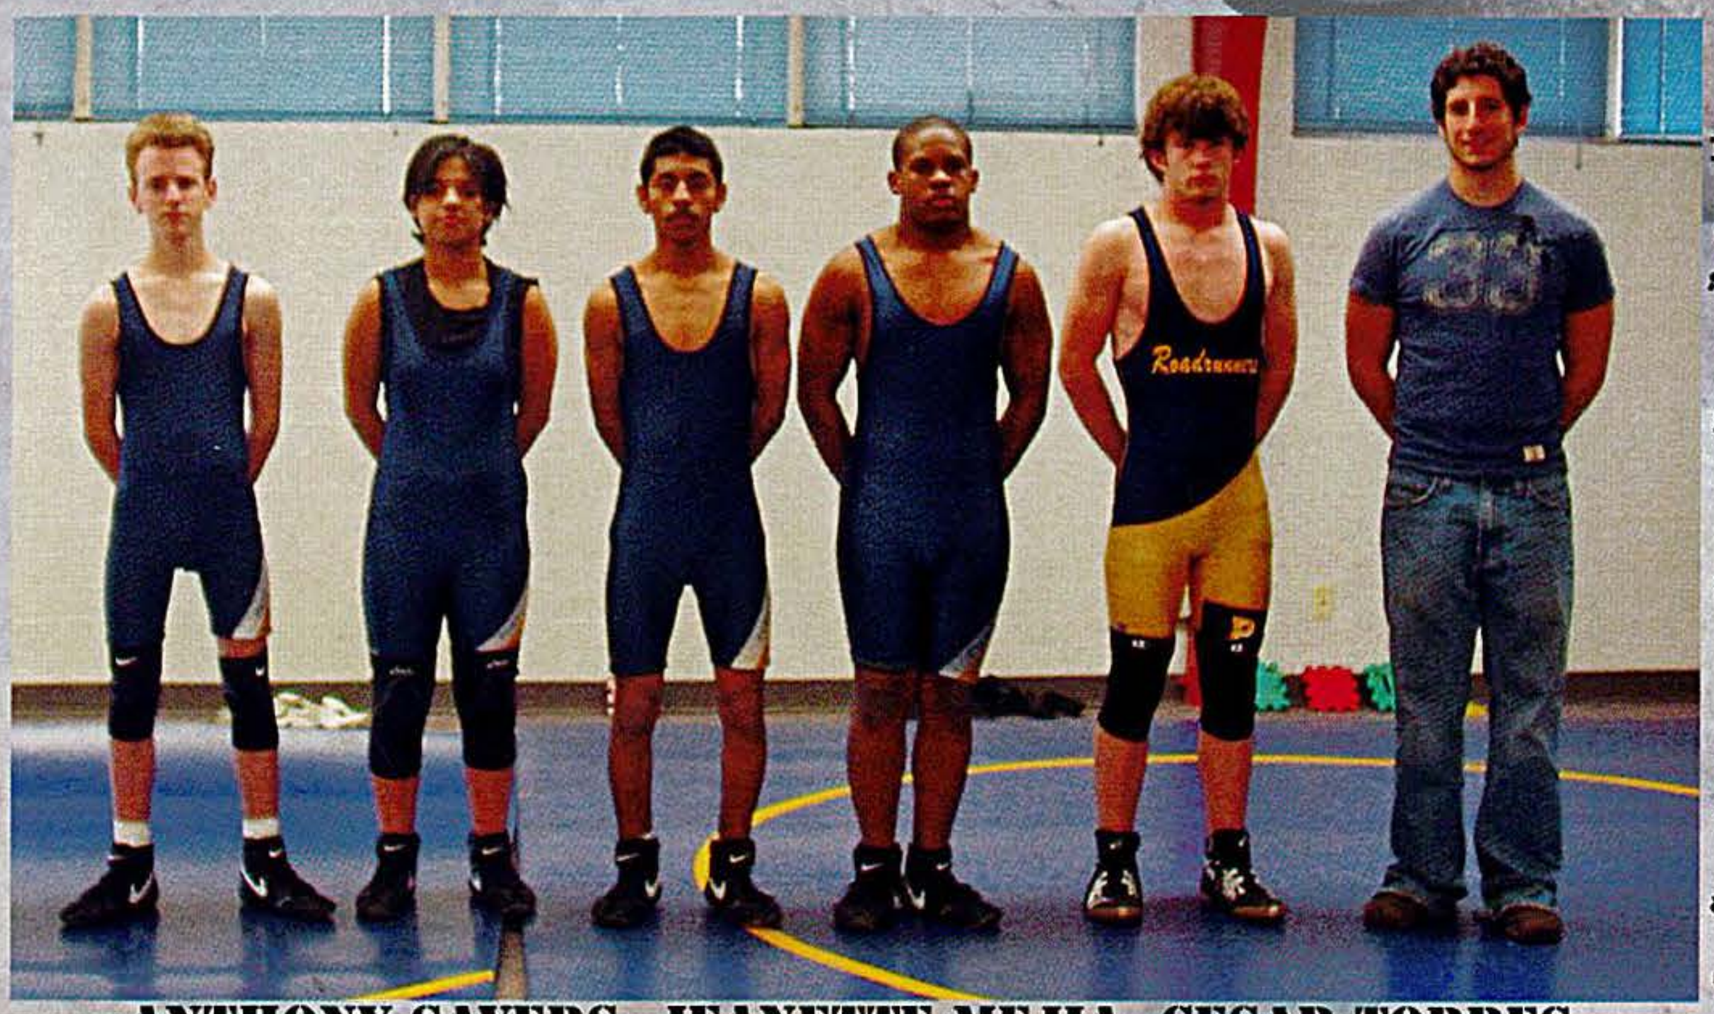
GO LADY ROADRUNNERS!

Go Amanda...SHOOT THAT BALL!

PDSD girls...keeping their eyes on the basketball.

Jessica ready to pass the ball to her teammate.

WRESTLING



ANTHONY SAVERS, JEANETTE MEJIA, CESAR TORRES, RONALD CLARK, TYLER BARNES, AND COACH: JON HENNER

Our new coach this year is Jon Henner. He works at Sequoia Charter School in Phoenix, then he comes to us for practice after school. Our team was ready to learn special moves and stretches.

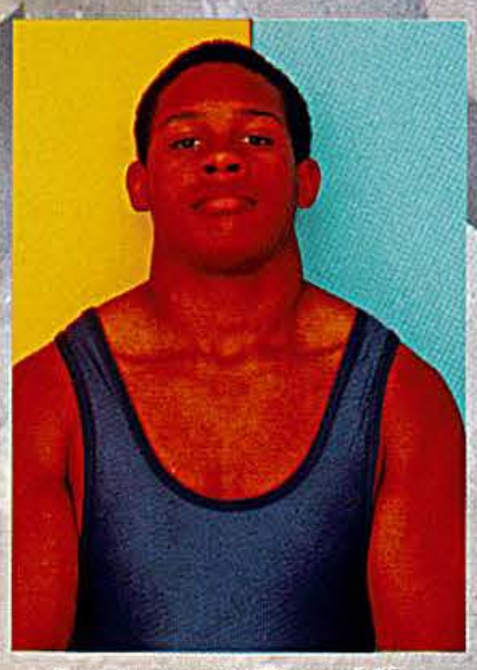
Some teams members went with the coach to the Texas State School for the Deaf on Jan. 20 to 23, they stayed in the dorm for two days. Jon took Ronald, Anthony and Cesar to Texas. Those three wrestled at Austin, Texas for the National Deaf Prep Wrestling Tournament.

Jeanette could not compete at this tournament because for some odd reason, girls are not allowed to wrestle in Texas. Tyler didn't go to Texas because he is injured.

Three wrestlers and the coach won the Sportmanship Trophy Award.

Cesar has wrestling before, when he was only 7 in public school. Now, as a freshman he experienced several wins.
Weight: 110

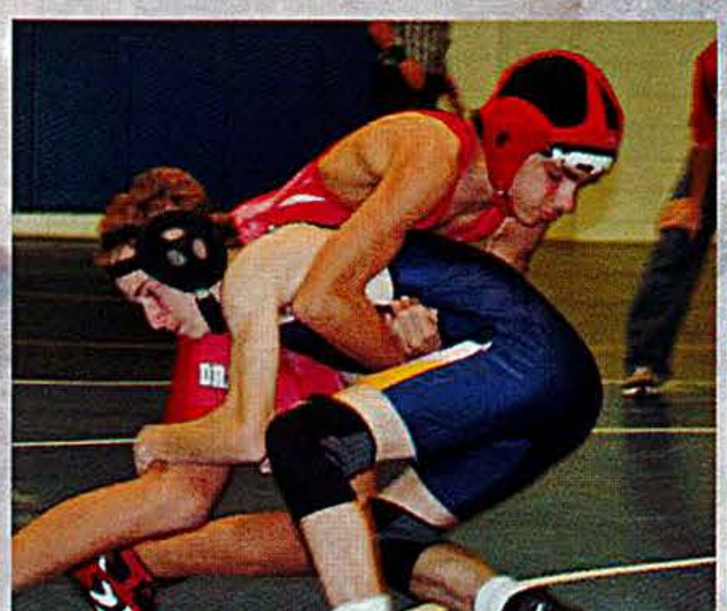
This is Anthony first time as a wrestler. As a freshman he is still learning all the special moves and holds needed to play. He will be back next year because he really wants to be involved.
Weight: 103



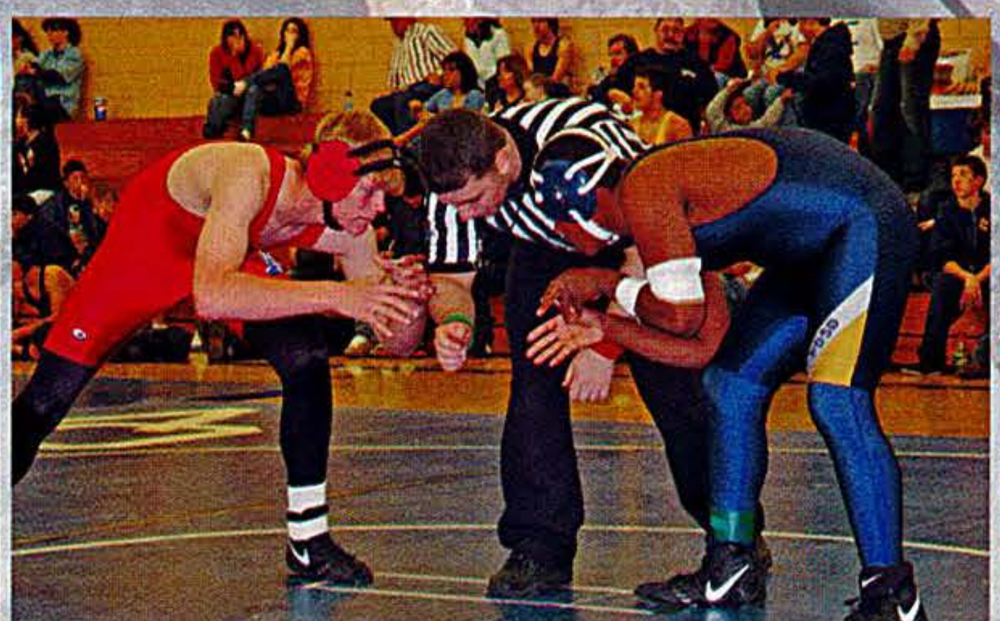
Last year, Ronald's weight was 215, but by eating the right food and taking care of his body, Ronald lost 55lbs. He has really worked hard this year in wrestling. You look GREAT RONALD!
Weight: 160

Tyler didn't wrestle this year because he had a rotater cuff injury in his shoulder. But he did participate last year. He will wrestle again next year because he's serious about wrestling.
Weight: 140

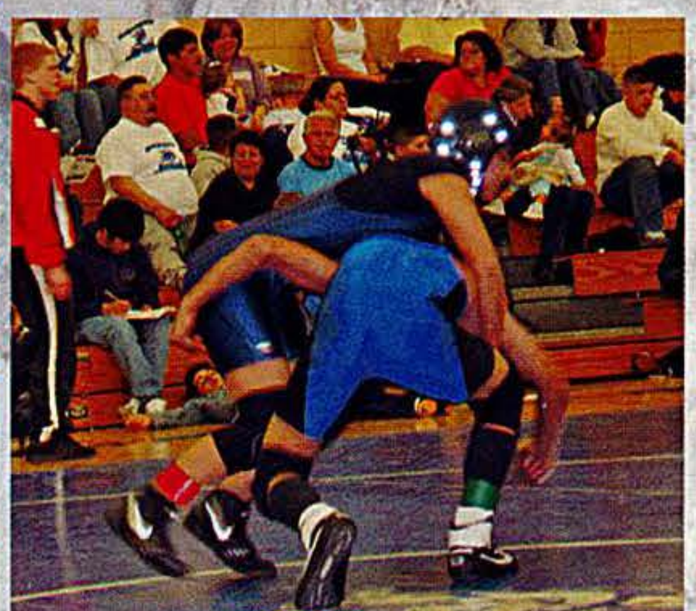
Jeanette is a second year wrestler. She wrestled and worked really hard in practice. She has become stronger this year.
Weight: 125



Anthony is stuck in a hold.



Ronald set and ready.



Jeanette beat the boy! Pah!

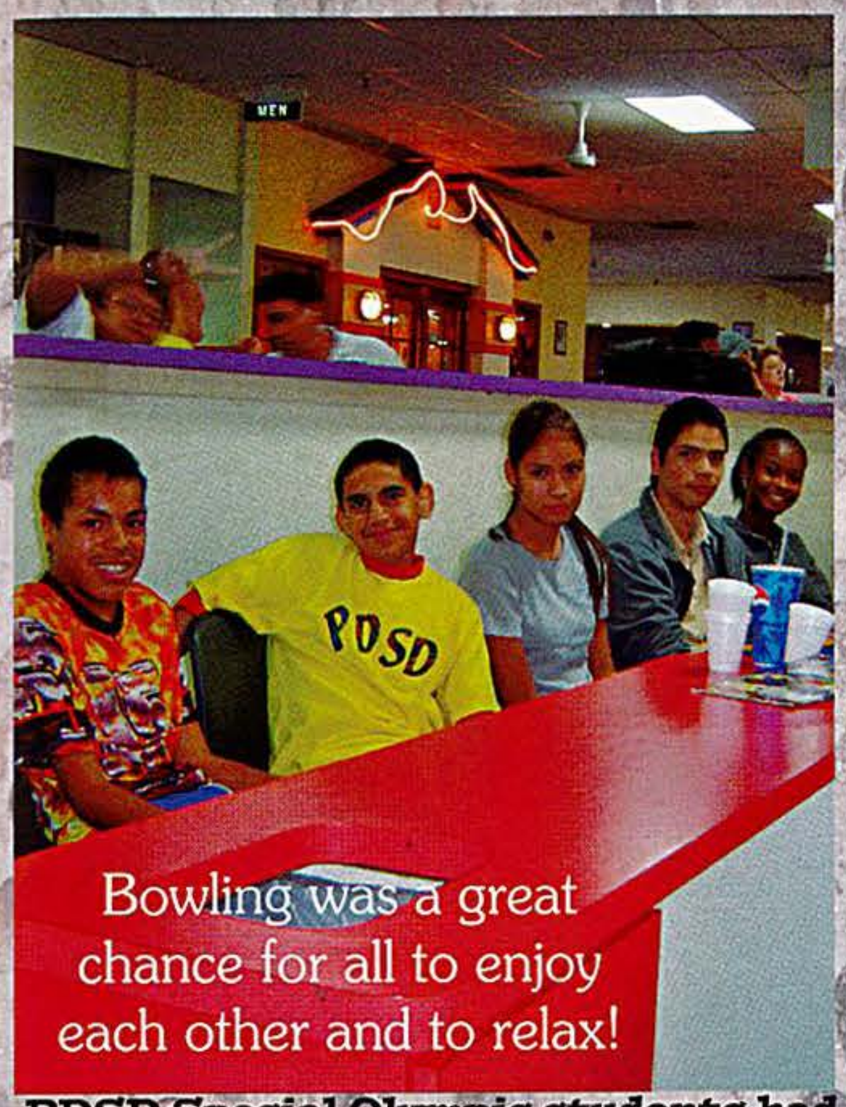
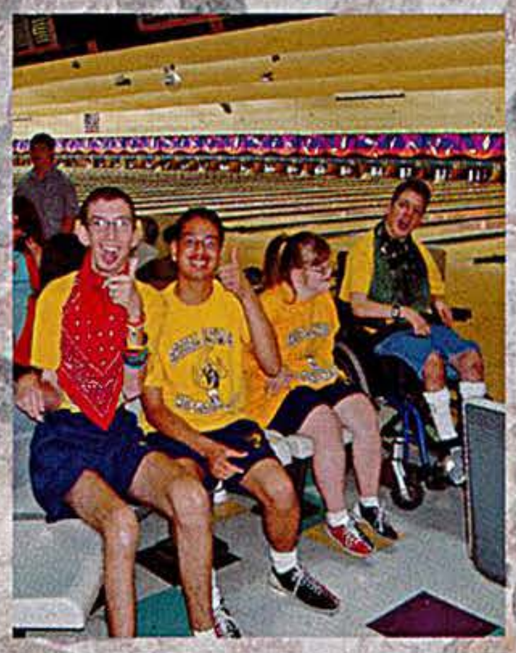
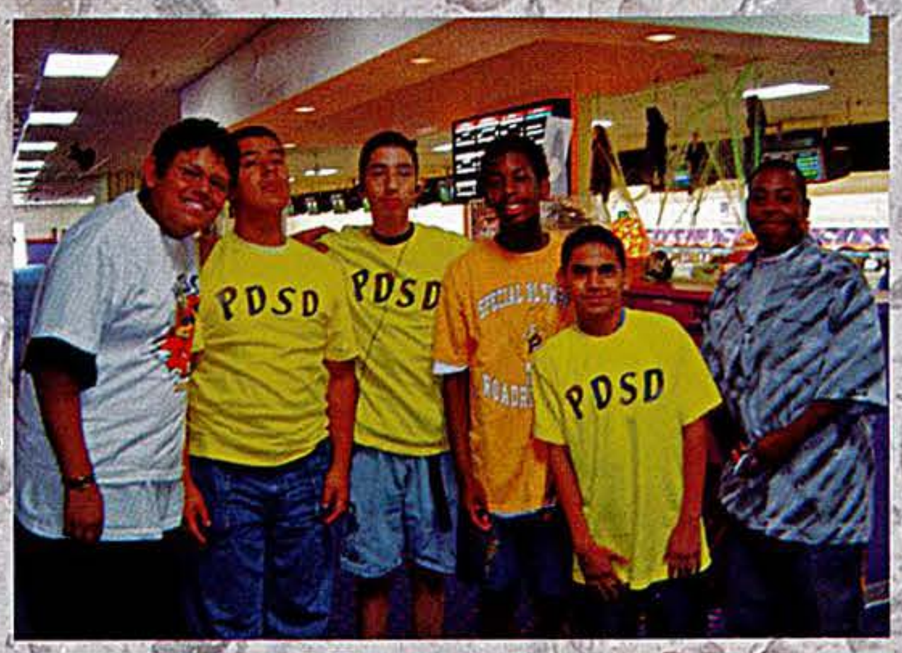
PDSD & Special Olympics



Bowling was a great chance for all to enjoy each other and to relax!

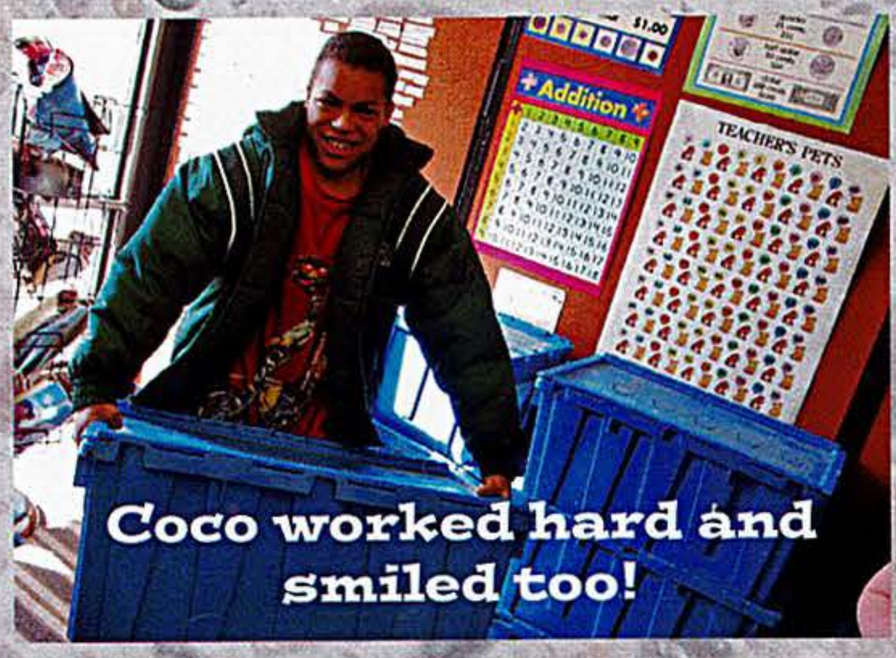




PDSD Special Olympic students had a great experience this year at the bowling tournament. Students took home the team trophy for first place! Congrats to all for hard work and strong teamwork!

Just Wild About DUCKS~!

Last fall the PDSD Vocational and CBI Departments were overrun with ducks. It was a successful work program that helped to earn students over $9000.00! Hard work does pay off!



Coco worked hard and smiled too!

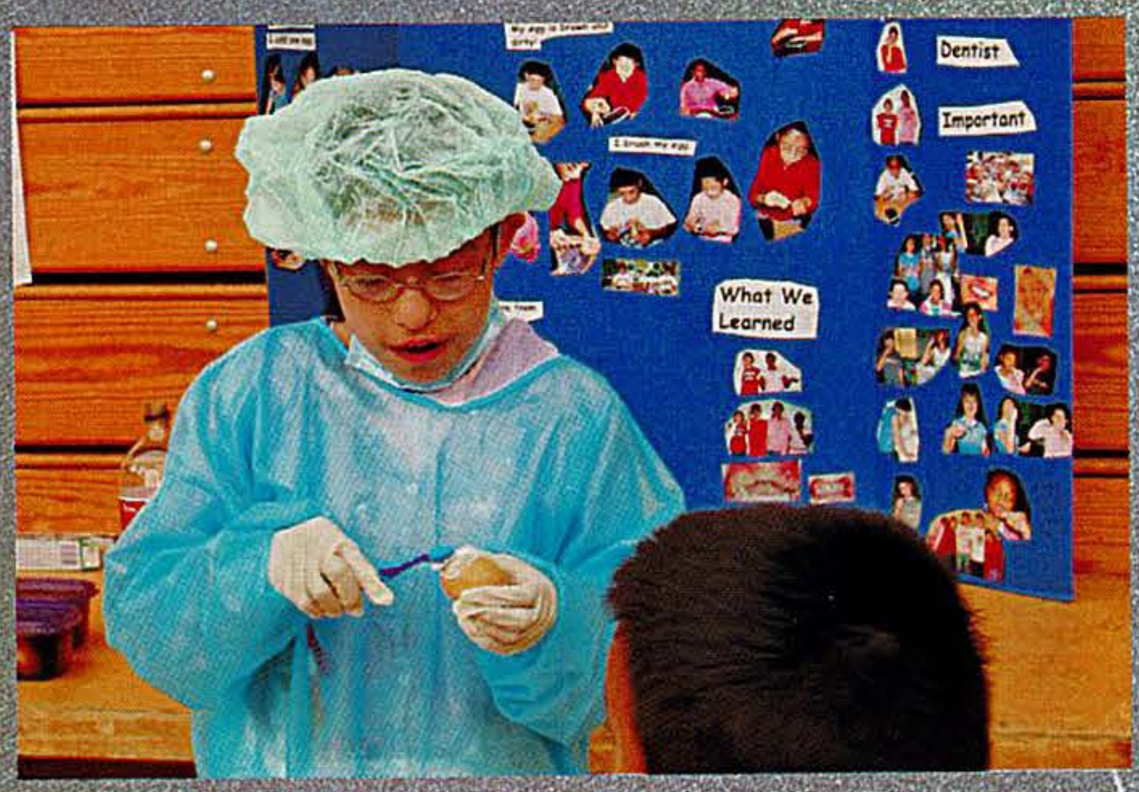
SCIENCE IS LIFE!

Mr. Karas taught the Middle School students about rockets.

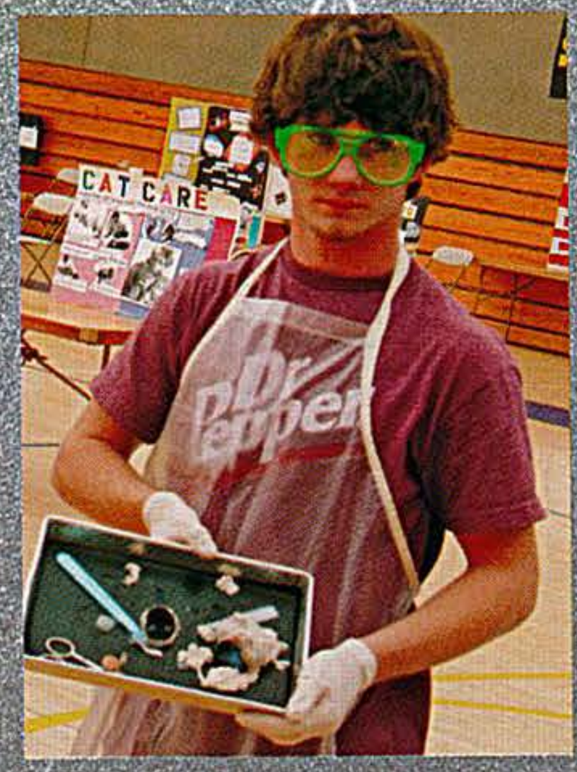
Korey shows students about the volcano.

Chance looked though the telescope to see stars and planets...oh so far away.

WOW! THAT ROCKET BLASTED OFF!!!



Ana shows students about brushing teeth. She shows an experiment using eggs soaked in pop as "brown teeth." When she brushes the egg well it becomes CLEAR WHITE again.



Tyler showed the high school students how to dissect a cow eye. Yucky!!!

At PDSD's Starnight a big dome was set up inside our gym. Inside everyone was able to see a star show with lights and slides. Way Cool!

The Science Fair was a great success this year. Students had all kinds of different and strange things for us to learn about and enjoy.

DRAMA & DANCE & DRUMS

PDSD staff and students participated in a major talent show in April. Students from kindergarten to high school seniors shared their many talents to packed crowds of friends and family. Thanks to those involved, this performance brought much laughter and applause.

C.B.I. students performed the song; "I'm Proud to be an American!"

They all became skilled drummers and learned some of the Japanese culture.

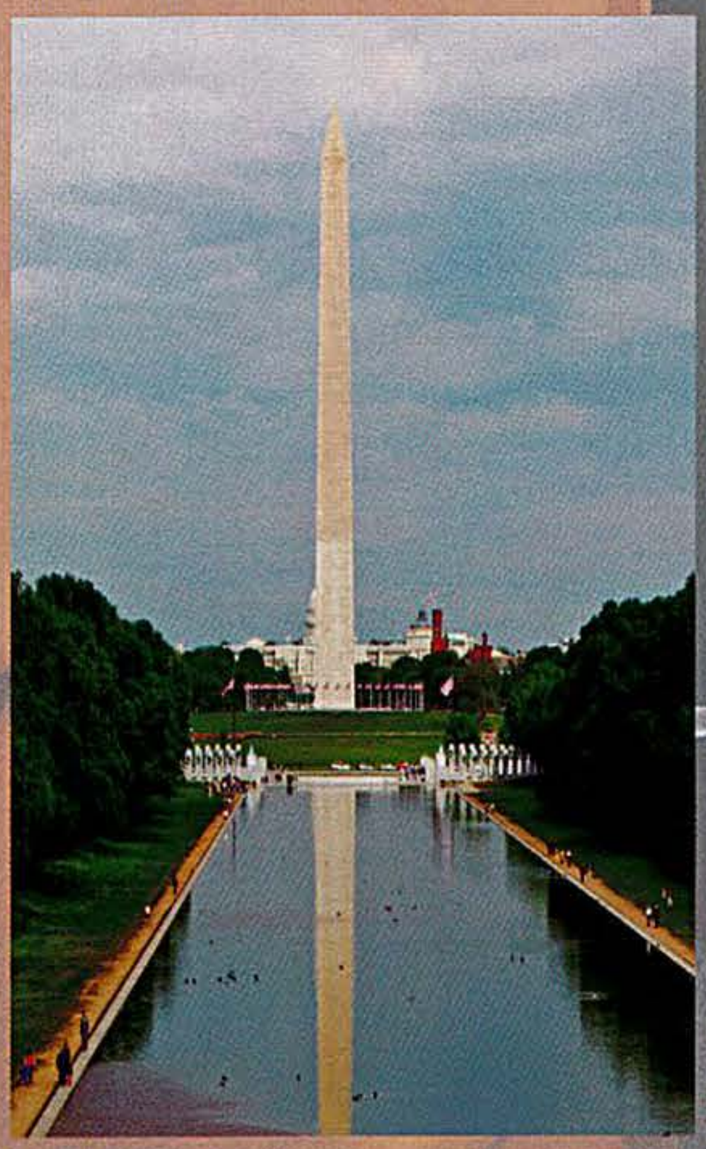
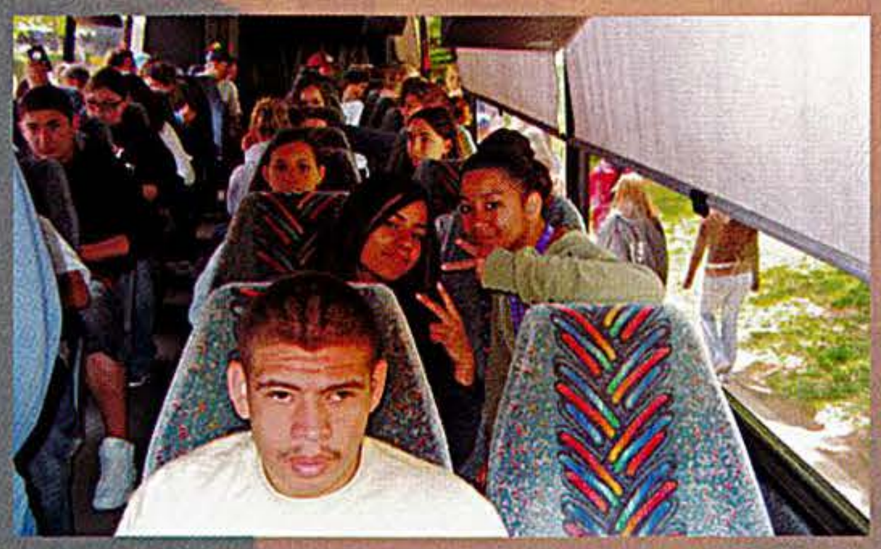
Close Up 2006





PDSD Middle School students had an experience of a lifetime traveling back east during the spring. They toured the nation's capital, participated in structured workshops, and went to Philadelphia! This was an awesome opportunity, jam-packed with American History ~ a great learning experience for all!

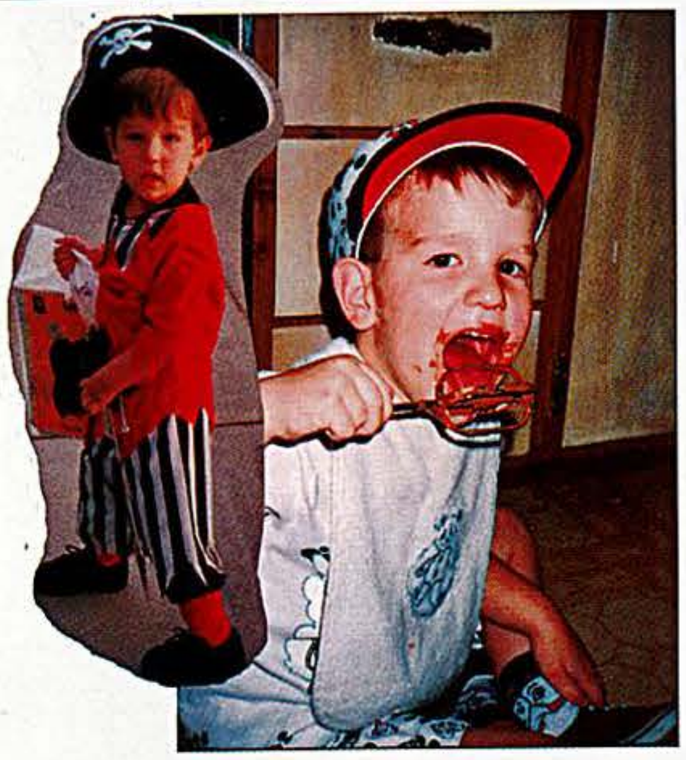
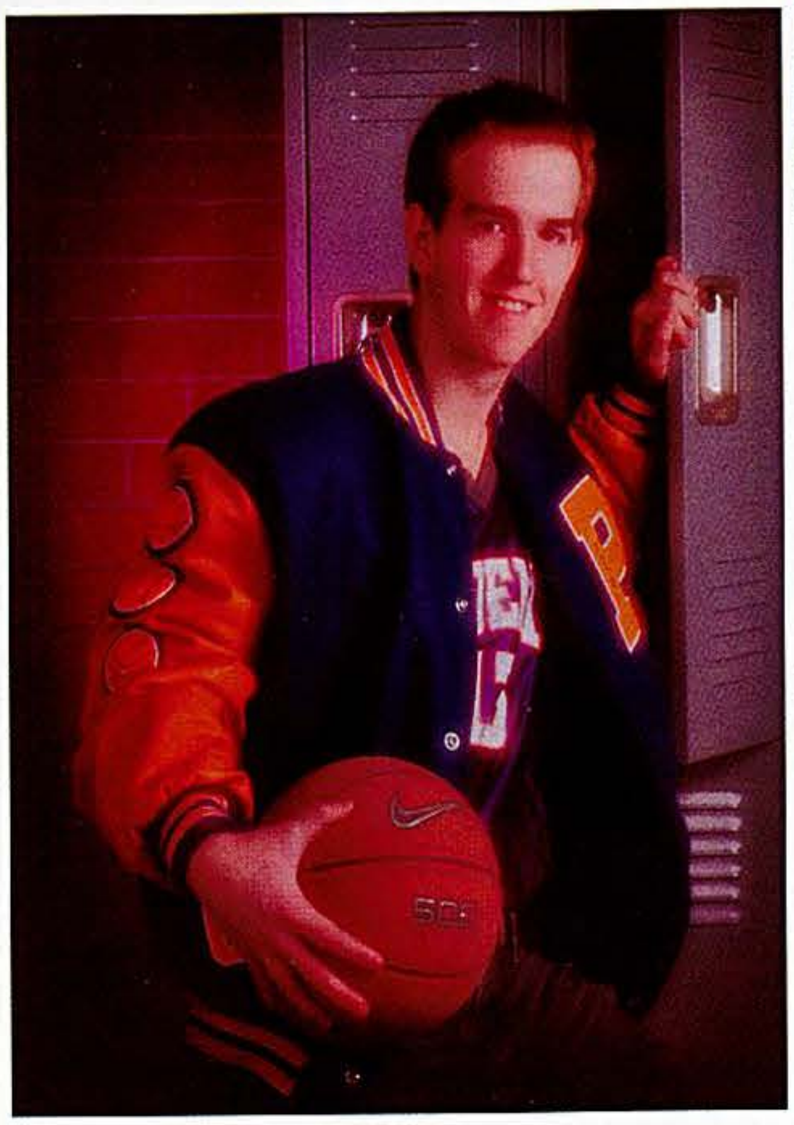
JAMES HYTE





Dear Jimmy,

You have grown from an innocent child to the amazing young man you are today. Through the years you've never let us down, you've turned our lives around. We are so fortunate and proud to have a son and brother as phenomenal as you have become. No mountain was ever high enough to climb when it came to what you believed in and wanted to accomplish. Always follow your heart and dreams, most importantly remember half the battle is enjoying whatever path you choose to lead.

With so much love and pride!!

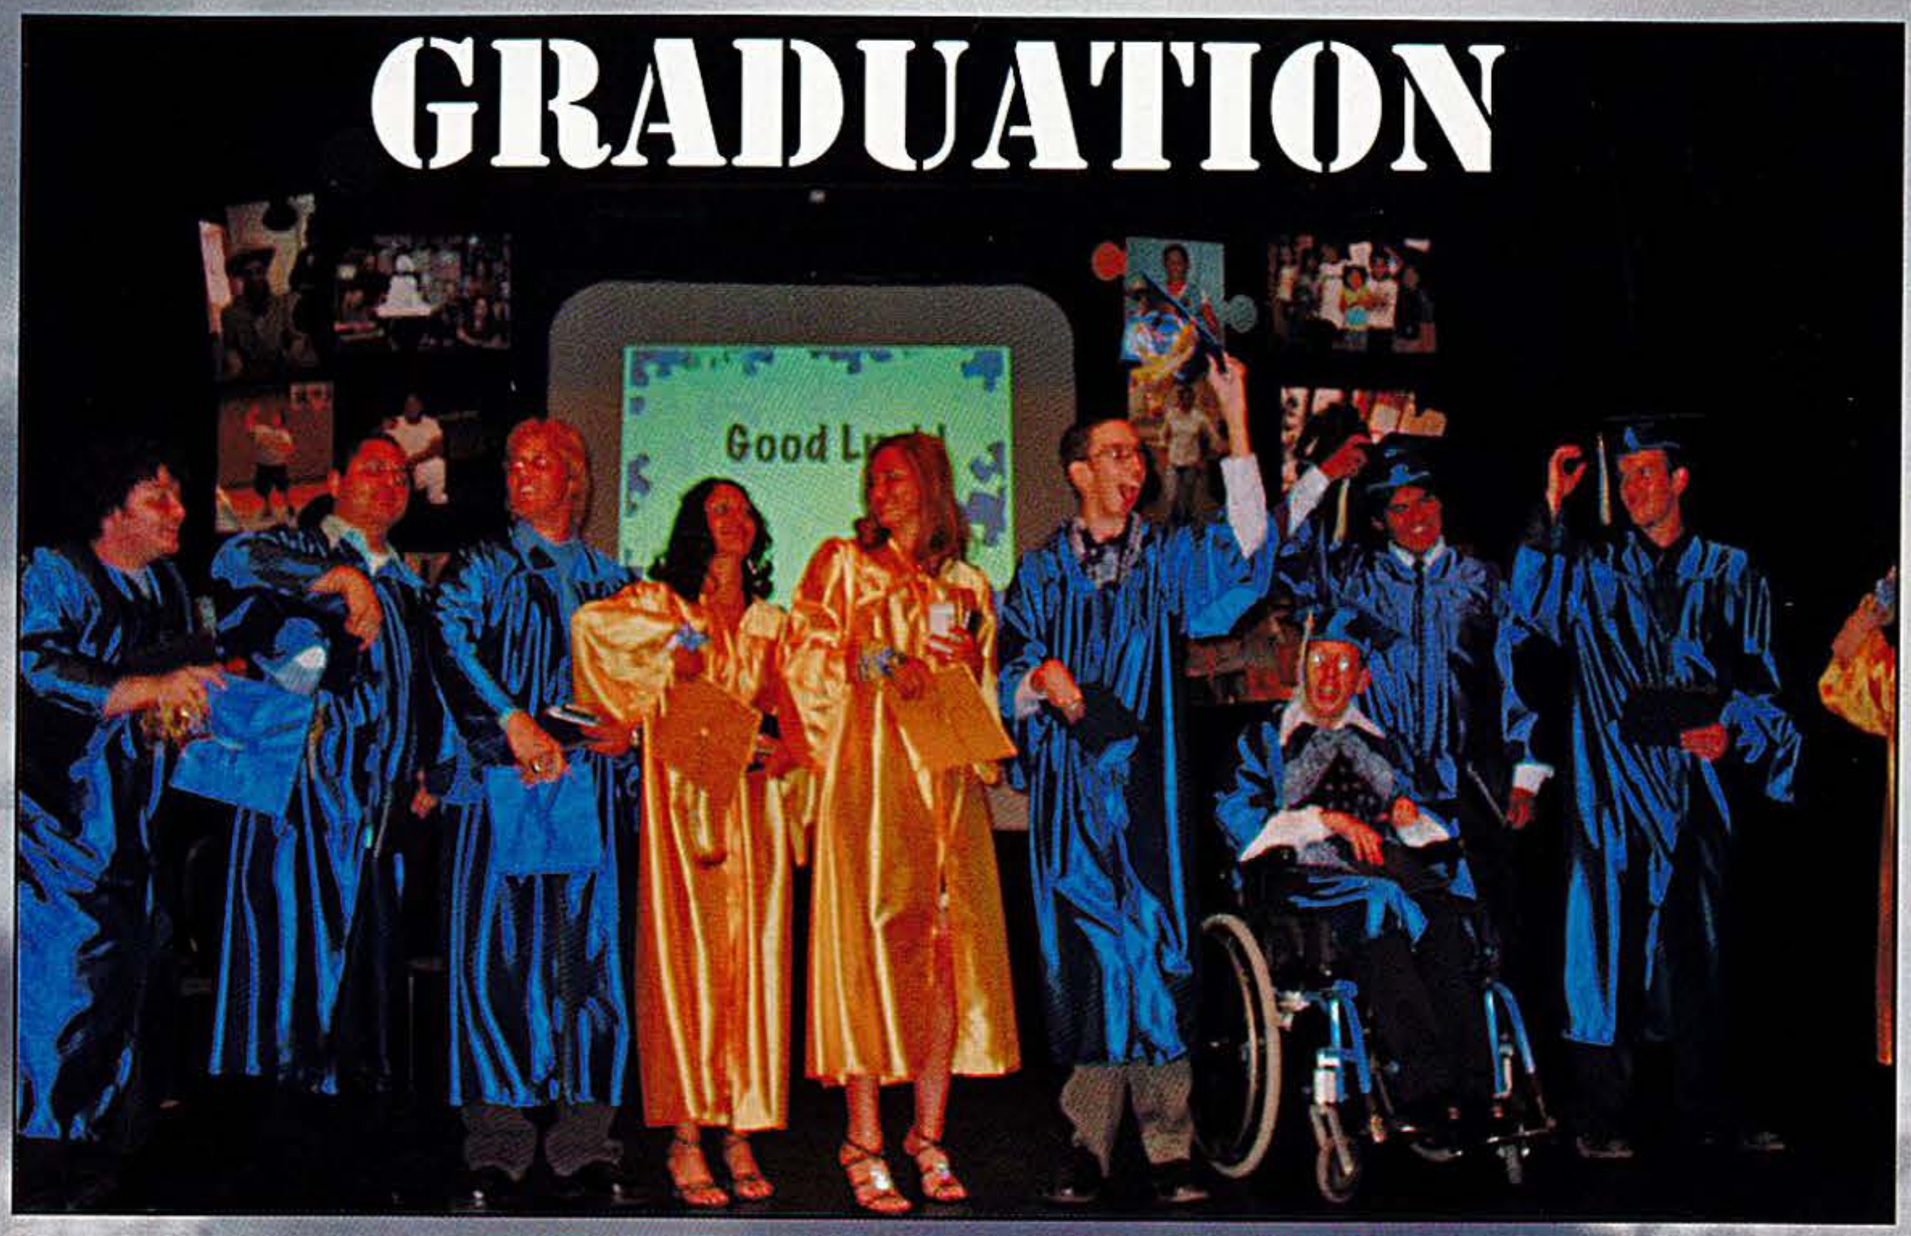
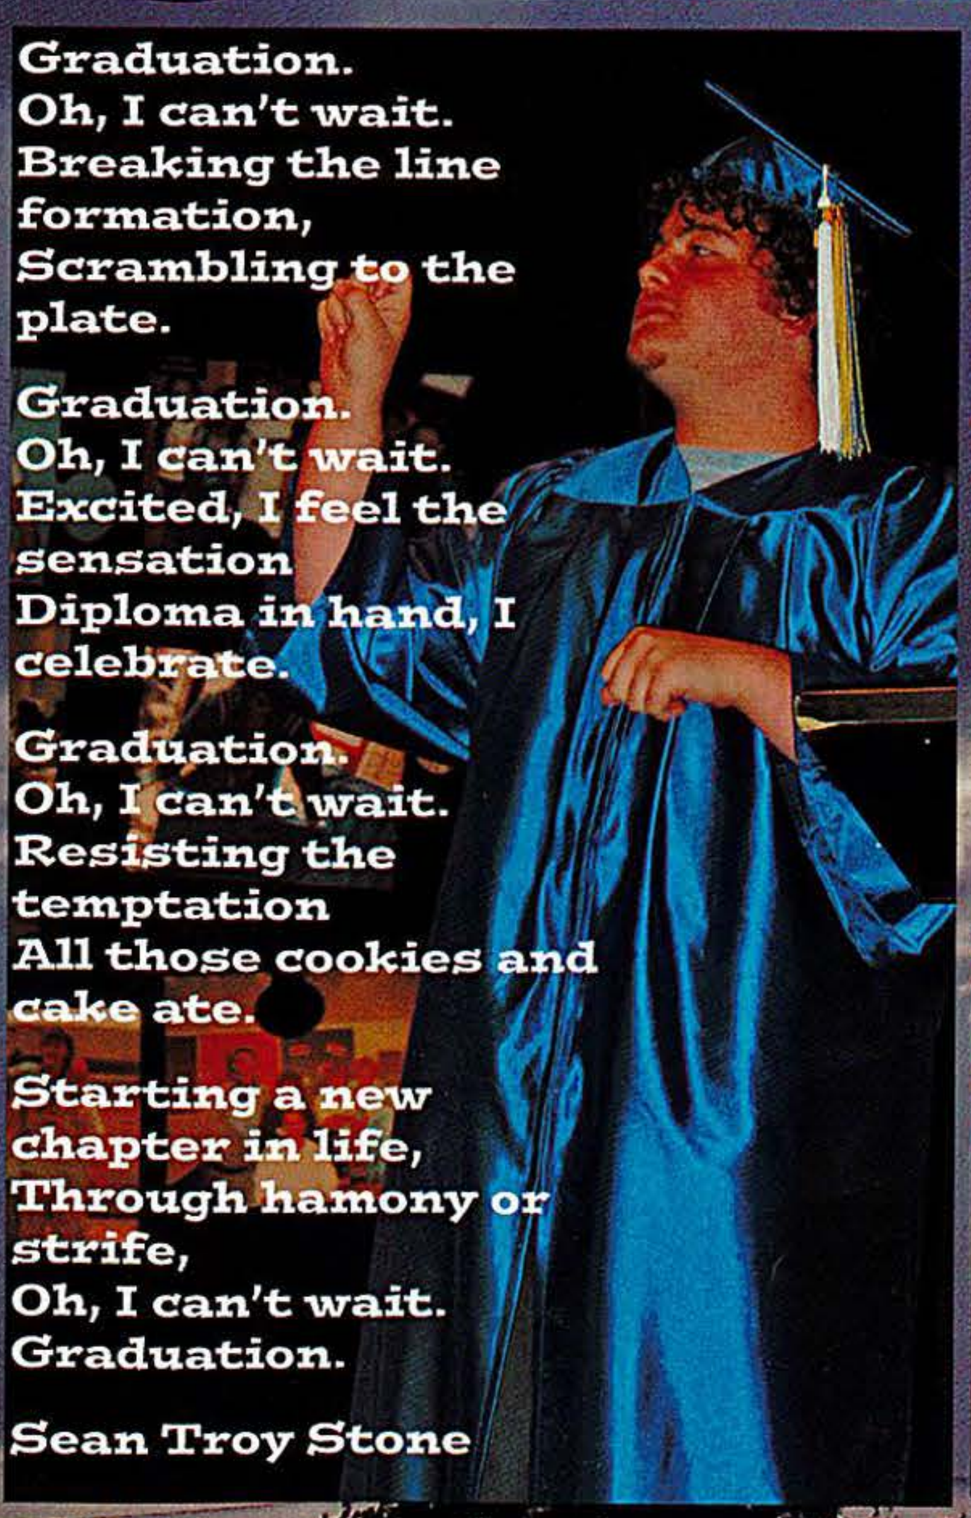
GRADUATION



MAY 23, 2006



Graduation.
Oh, I can't wait.
Breaking the line formation,
Scrambling to the plate.

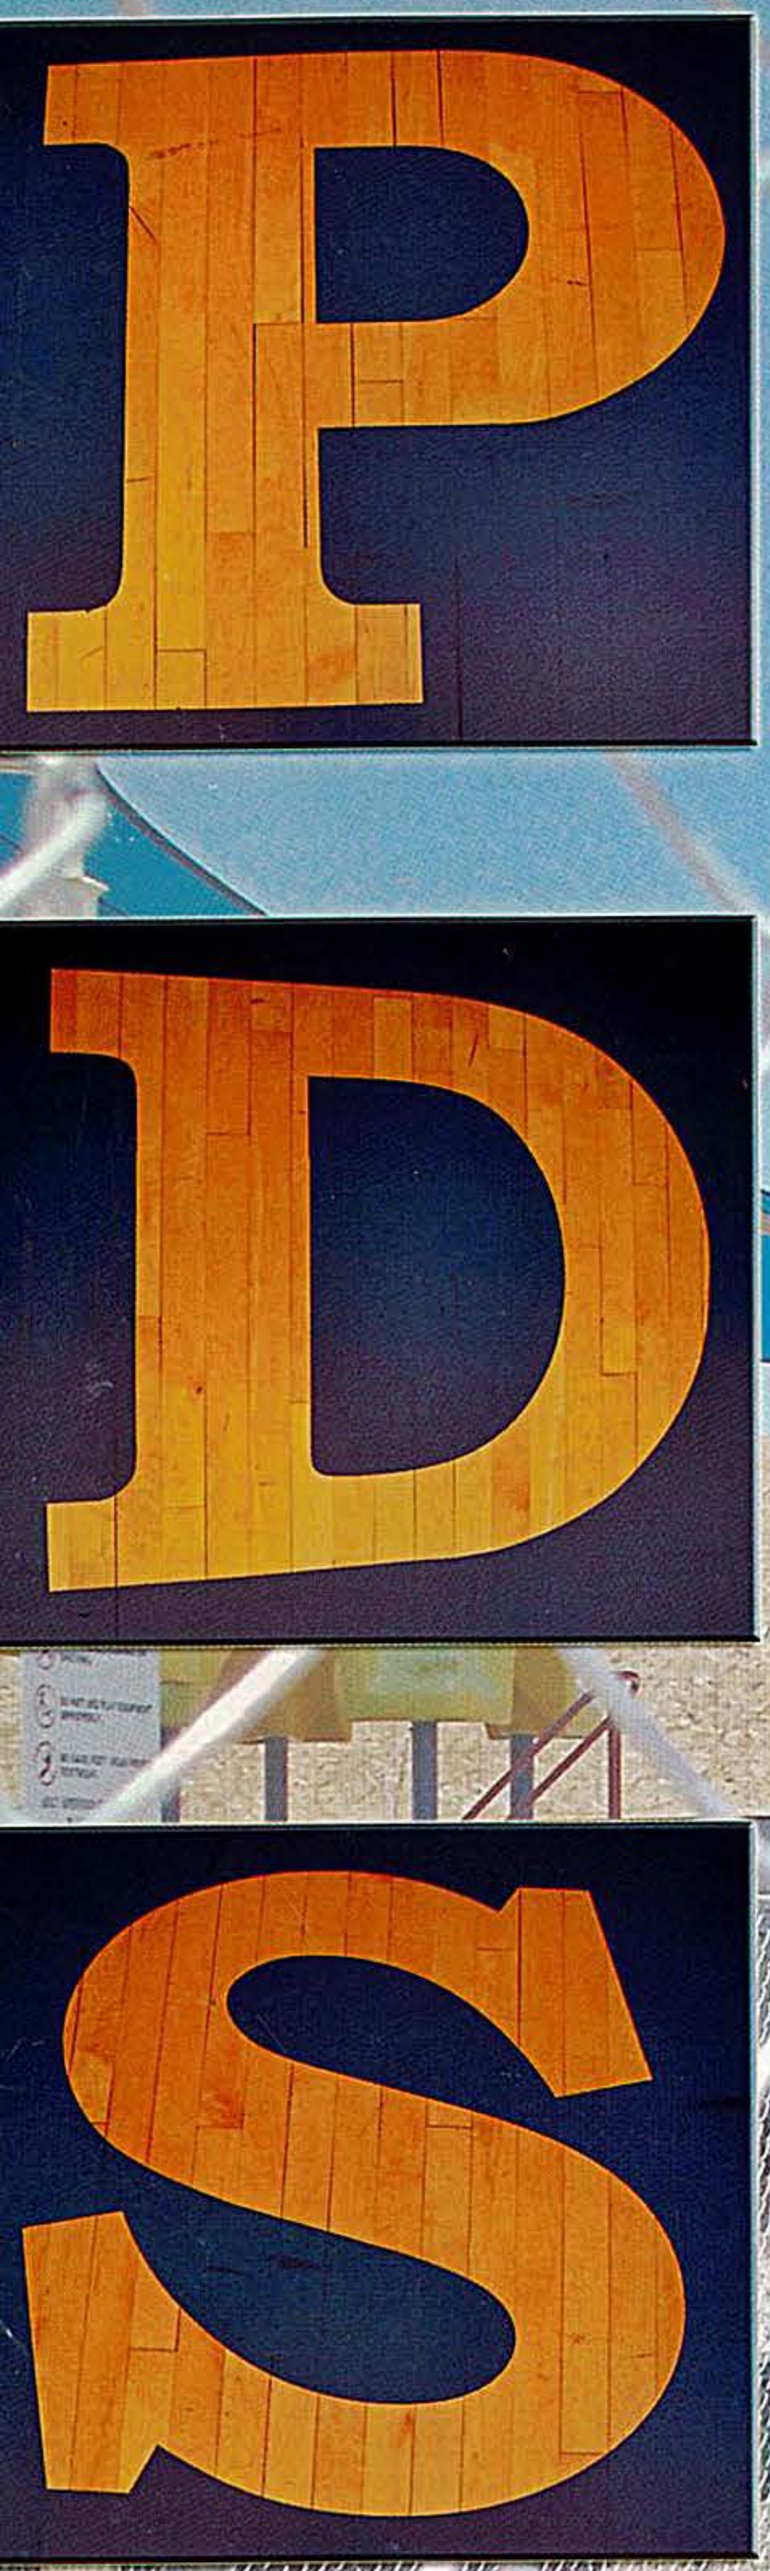
Graduation.
Oh, I can't wait.
Excited, I feel the sensation
Diploma in hand, I celebrate.

Graduation.
Oh, I can't wait.
Resisting the temptation
All those cookies and cake ate.

Starting a new chapter in life,
Through hamony or strife,
Oh, I can't wait.
Graduation.

Sean Troy Stone

YEEEAAAHHH!!! They graduated...but they still cry, knowing they will miss their friends and teachers.



HAIL TO OUR ROADRUNNER

Hail to our roadrunner
Spirit, spirit, pride, pride
To our P D S D colors
What?
Of course, blue gold

Doesn't matter black, mexican, white
Tall, short, fat, thin,
Fast, slow, ugly, good-looking
Lousy, superstar
Still doesn't matter

Opponents afraid our roadrunner boys girls
We fight aiming through
Even though our boys girls hit, hit
Frustrate, frustrate, slump down

What if our victory seems impossible?

Wait, wait, WAIT!
Our roadrunner boys girls willing stubborn
Fight from
Sunrise-rays, rise-temperature up, descend-hot, descend-darker, sunset-still hot
Hot, pain, pain, bear, bear
Still doesn't matter, stubborn

So, hail to our roadrunner
Spirit, spirit, pride, pride
To our school colors
What?
Of course, blue gold

Blue gold in heart
Heart beats, pump blood
Me, you, you, you, we bleed
Colors what?
Of course, blue gold

Our roadrunner boys girls ready group battle, battle
Referee blow, people yell, we hear?
No! Deaf! We feel see!
So, yell yell, wave wave, support our Roadrunners, roadrunners, roadrunners!
